3, 2, 1... We Believe! Countdown to Christmas

Mayor David Gillock joined with Santa and his elves as the community of North Ridgeville gathered at South Central Park last Saturday for the annual Tree Lighting Ceremony. It was a great time to celebrate the season, community and the spirit of the holiday. Merry Christmas, everybody!

Holiday on the Ridge Celebrates the Season

The magic of the holiday season came to North Ridgeville throughout the hours of Saturday, Dec. 7, as the 19th annual North Ridgeville Holiday on the Ridge was celebrated throughout the community.

It was a day to enjoy and get to know better all things North Ridgeville! From making new friends, visiting craft shows, to exploring the many businesses and interesting people that make North Ridgeville special, it was a great day, indeed!

It all started with a great concert kick-off by the North Ridgeville High School Spectrum of Sound Choir at The Northridge Healthcare at 10 a.m. with Christmas Carols, hot chocolate and sweet treats to rev up the holiday spirit.

The festivities concluded in grand style at South Central Park at 5 p.m., where retiring Mayor David

Members of the Faith Baptist Temple celebrated an old-fashioned Christmas with sounds of the season and historic garb as part of the weekend's Holiday on the Ridge celebration. It was a beautiful display of seasonal joy.

Santa stopped at My Wood Loft where he met with elves Sam and Avery Lambert. He will be back on Dec. 21 from 11-1, so stop by with your camera!

Eat your heart out, Clark Griswold!

Clark Griswold, you've got nothing on the Bob Mangan Winter Wonderland in North Ridgeville!

The 50,000-plus lights there include lighted arches on the driveway and sidewalks, subtle Christmas music playing in the background, inflatables tastefully placed including a lifelike Santa with a bench for photos, and much more. The scene is located at 34907 Cambridge Dr., in the Wildwood Estates. Viewing hours are (Thanksgiving to New Years) Sun-Thurs: 5:15-10 pm, Fri-Sat: 5:15-11 pm (extended hours on Christmas Eve, Christmas, and New Year. FREE!
